

YELLOW HIVE

HOW WE HELP COMPANIES BUILD PREDICTABLE GROWTH

A look at how Yellow Hive supports companies with outbound sales, lead generation, and scalable pipeline development.

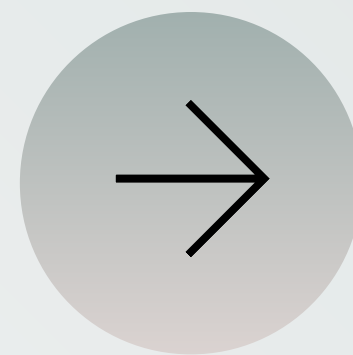

NEPS

NEPS – Entering the U.S. Market

NEPS partnered with Yellow Hive to expand into the U.S. market with a clear and structured sales approach.

Our team managed the process end-to-end, from positioning and outreach to sales execution and follow-ups, helping introduce NEPS to relevant decision-makers and secure meaningful business meetings.

FORTRESS CYBER

Fortress Cyber — Building Trust Through Outreach

Fortress Cyber provides high-level cybersecurity solutions for businesses that prioritize protection and reliability.

Yellow Hive implemented a trust-focused outreach approach, positioning Fortress Cyber as a credible partner in a sensitive industry. By combining strategic messaging with consistent follow-ups, we helped generate meaningful conversations with high-value prospects.

CRC DATA TECHNOLOGIES

CRC Data Technologies — Scaling Beyond Referrals

CRC delivers trusted managed IT services for SMB clients.

Yellow Hive implemented a structured outbound sales strategy designed to help CRC reach decision-makers in new markets and build a predictable pipeline beyond referral-based growth.

LPX DIGITAL

LPX Digital — Scaling Demand Generation

LPX Digital helps brands grow through data-driven digital marketing and performance strategies.

Yellow Hive built a personalized outreach engine focused on identifying high-intent prospects and starting relevant conversations. By refining messaging and targeting, we helped LPX Digital move from scattered outreach to a consistent flow of qualified opportunities.

KAIZNTREE

KaiznTree — Supporting SaaS Growth

KaiznTree is an AI-powered platform helping small businesses streamline inventory and operations.

Yellow Hive supports the company with lead generation and targeted outreach, connecting the platform with founders and operators in product-based businesses.

ELITE TECH

Elite Tech — Reaching the Right Decision-Makers

Elite Tech delivers advanced technology solutions designed for efficiency and scalability.

Yellow Hive designed a precise SDR strategy focused on reaching key decision-makers within target industries. Through structured prospecting and multi-channel outreach, Elite Tech was able to engage the right audience and turn interest into scheduled meetings.

OUR APPROACH

What Makes Our Approach Different

We focus on building predictable growth systems instead of relying only on referrals.

Our strategy combines:

- Market research
- Targeted outreach
- Sales development (SDR teams)
- Consistent pipeline generation

RESULTS

Turning Strategy Into Growth

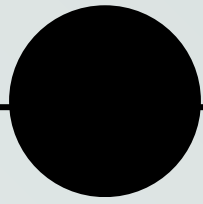

Our work helps companies:

- Reach the right decision-makers
- Generate qualified meetings
- Enter new markets
- Build scalable and repeatable sales systems

READY TO SCALE?

Expanding into new markets and building a predictable pipeline doesn't have to be complex. It just requires the right strategy, and the right partner.
